The Tonopah Mining Company advertises in the BONANZA that there is work for twenty more teams. Freight both ways between Soda and Tonopah is assured; rates $15 to $20 per ton, distance 60 miles. The BONANZA says ore is accumulating faster than it can be hauled, and that by actual count there are 7,527 sacks of ore awaiting shipment. Other information reaching the Register is that the teams already on the road are abundantly able to handle all freight that reaches Soda for the camp. They are not able to haul out the ore, but new teamsters going there will sometimes have to lose expensive time at Soda waiting for loads into the camp. Bishop Register.

The Register has been misinformed in regards to new teams having to wait several days at Sodaville for return freight. To our certain knowledge we know of over 500,000 feet of lumber that has to be freighted into Tonopah, besides merchandise, machinery and mining timbers. The food consumed in Tonopah and vicinity is something enormous, and the teams now on the road are inadequate to handle it. No wagons will leave Sodaville for this place for a long time to come without a load of freight. At this writing Friday evening there are over 10,000 sacks of ore piled up waiting for teams to freight it to Sodaville. The Clark shaft is taking out enough ore in sinking to keep every team now on the road moving. Just think of this, one shaft seven feet from wall to wall and nine feet long, keeping thirteen teams employed. There are four other shafts on the same lead that can each supply ore for ten teams, or in other words can keep 10-fourteen animal teams hauling ore steadily. If the company cannot induce teamsters to come here, they will purchase several large teams and operate them. What the Register reads in the BONANZA it can rely on being true. The informant of the Register was a teamster who is unreliable.

Cecil Rhodes and other mine owners who promoted the war to secure cheaper wages and larger dividends have lost. It is estimated, $180,000,000 through their mines having been nearly stopped for three years. And Rhodes is far on the way to his own place across the Styx. And the war has already cost Great Britain over a billion of dollars. The loss of British lives is, of course a minor matter, as there are millions more of human material to be had.

It is said that Levi Strauss goes to Tallac on Lake Tahoe each year about this time, gives big dinners, drops a thousand at poker and every tourist says what a good fellow Levi is. The joker is when Strauss goes back to San Francisco and slaps a two-cent raise on each pair of overalls. It is poor policy to be a "good fellow" by robbing the working man. Old Satan will have a settlement with Levi when he "goes hence."

The late robbery at the Selby reduction works in California, of which at least $75,000 of the gold stolen came from the Tonopah mines, is said to be the largest steal ever committed—the trusts excepted. Somebody will have to suffer for this loss.

There are plenty of good locations in Tonopah awaiting purchasers. A mine can be found any where on the west side of the town by sinking 150 feet. It is here if you wish to invest.

The report that C. D. Van Duzer and Allen Bragg will go to El Reno to stop the Uncle Sam's Land Lottery is denied.

Brother Hummel of the Wadsworth Dispatch writes the editor of this paper: "Only the first two copies of the BONANZA received at this office. What's the matter with the mailing monkey." We plead guilty, Hummel. We "is" the mailing monkey. It was an oversight of ours, but you are now on the list until the judgment day. When Gabriel toots his tooter the BONANZA will be in existence and Tonopah will be the Denver of Nevada.

The Carson Appeal has the following saying of the discoverer of Tonopah: "Jim Butler, says that Carson is one of the most conveniently laid out towns he ever saw. A man can take a morning walk and get in several miles with an opportunity to take a drink every two minutes. Any other town he was ever in, one had to confine his trips to one or two blocks—keep near the corner, as it were, to insure a good circulation of the blood."

A Carson woman prayed long and earnestly for her husband, and finally asked her pastor what she could do to induce him to stay home at nights. He advised adding to his home comforts something that he enjoyed away from home. The next day the wife was inquiring the price of Carson beer by the keg.

A Carson rancher who employed Indian school students to harvest hay at a wage of $1.25 per day, charged them $1 per day for board. The Carson papers should ascertain the name of this scoundrel that it may be published in every paper in the State. Labor is worthy of its hire.

The order abolishing the bars on the Southern Pacific ferries, which was to have gone into effect August first, was postponed for thirty days by President Hays. This action was due to the protest entered by the Wholesale Liquor Dealers' Association of San Francisco.

Will somebody please make us a cool proposition?—Gardnerville Courier.

Yes. Here's one. Send us the Courier for one year and at the expiration of that time we will remit. Just one year's credit is all we ask for. If this is not a "cool" proposition try us again.

The pay day of the Reno Star mine is said to call for the distribution of $1,800 in wages.—Tribune.

That's nothing. The Tonopah Mining Company pays $3,000 per month for labor in a shaft only 100 feet deep and it takes just 60 minutes to take that amount from mother earth.

The Carson News says that C. D. Van Duzer has authorized his Carson friends to say that he will be a candidate for Congress next fall, all reports to the contrary notwithstanding. This must surely be a joke, pure and simple.

A gentleman writing from this place to a friend at Lovelocks says lumber sells here for $110 per thousand. The gentleman is mistaken. Lumber sells for $57 and $60 in Tonopah.

In the Ross-Knapp assault to murder case, just tried in Virginia City, the jury found Ross guilty of simple assault and acquitted Knapp. Ross was sentenced to pay a fine of $500 which he did.

Jas. Hall, a merchant of Mountain City, this State, who was charged with selling liquor to Indians was discharged in the U. S. Court, in Carson on Saturday last.
